MARIAN A. SMITH AWARD COMMITTEE
Manual of Operations

DESCRIPTION: The Marian A. Smith Award Committee administers the Marian A. Smith Award, given to a qualified student who is pursuing graduate studies in costume design or costume technology.

PART I. OPERATING PROCEDURES

(In this section should appear as much detail as may be necessary about how the subject group or activity functions. The procedures are not binding upon future users of the manual, but rather constitute useful hints from previous activists. They may be changed at any time, as long as the changes do not conflict with SETC policies as stipulated in the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, or Rules.)

1. Fundamental Procedures:

- A. The Marian A. Smith Award is an award presented annually (providing a suitable candidate can be found) to a student of an accredited undergraduate college or university within the SETC region attending, upon entering an accredited graduate theatre program in Costume Design or Costume Technology; or a student currently enrolled in an accredited graduate theatre program in Costume Design or Costume Technology within the SETC region.

 - a. The interview is the final step in selecting the Smith Scholar.
 - b. The committee will meet or consult digitally after all finalist interviews to select the Smith Scholar and the committee is charged with prioritizing finalists.

6. Recusal of Committee Members: Any Committee member with a personal or professional relationship with an award finalist shall recuse him or herself from the deliberations. If a Committee member must be recused, the Committee Chair will cooperate with the SETC President to appoint a replacement Committee member.

7. Other Responsibilities: The Committee Chair serves on the Finance Advisory Council and is expected to attend the fall and spring meetings of the Council and to file semi-advisory reports as requested and specified in the SETC Rules. All committee chairs receive budget request forms that they need to complete and submit to the SETC Executive Director according to the deadline given (typically in the fall).

8. Collaboration with Central Office: Article XI, Section 3 of SETC's Bylaws specifies that all committee chairs "collaborate with the Executive Director (ED) and Central Office staff. Because the Executive Director provides leadership for the organization and, with the organization's professional staff, is responsible for the success of SETC's mission, vision, and all operations, effective partnership and communication is important between the committee chair, the Central Office staff, and the ED. This collaboration enhances the development of ideas and supports the planning and execution programs and services; ensures marketing/promotion support; and strengthens processes, funding and budgetary challenges while assisting with schedules, deadlines and timelines. Each committee has a designated staff member to assist the collaboration.

9. Succession:

- A. At the conclusion of the Chair's term of service, the chair will review the committee manual and submit any changes to Operating Procedures to the Vice President of Finance.
